Michell Bartlein

SPEAKER, EDUCATOR, BUSINESS COACH, ENTREPRENEUR, PODCASTER

Michell Bartlein has been a driving force in the beauty industry for nearly three decades. As the owner of Savoye Salon Spa, Michell has firsthand experience with the challenges and triumphs that come with running a successful, service-based business in an ever-changing industry. Her leadership philosophy is rooted in integrity, trust, solutionist, and courage. She believes company culture is a lived, daily practice built through authentic connection and consistent actions. As a speaker and educator, she delivers engaging, impactful presentations on leadership, company culture, and time management—three areas she believes are critical to business success yet often overlooked in traditional training. Her teaching style blends hard-earned business acumen with relatable, real-world stories, empowering owners and leaders to not only rethink the way they run their companies, but to also help others live their best lives.
