

Matthew J. Joski

Matt has been in Law Enforcement since 1993 and the Sheriff of Kewaunee County since 2007. While serving as Sheriff, Matt has served on various State Committees including the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council, Child Death Response Task Force, and Statewide Communications Interoperability Council.

In addition, Matt has also served with the United States Marine Corp and is currently serving with the Wisconsin National Guard. Through his military career, Matt has attended training in Master Resiliency, Master Fitness, Comprehensive Health & Wellness, and the Army's most recent program; CARES (Connectedness And Relationship Education System).

On the civilian side, Matt is also certified as a Suicide Prevention Instructor through the QPR Institute and has provided prevention and resiliency training to the youth of his community. Most recently, Matt has joined the Team at the Center for Suicide Awareness in providing resiliency training for First Responders throughout the nation.

Matt has taught in the schools as a CounterACT, CORE Matters, and GRIT/SEL (Social Emotional learning) Instructor. He is also a Faith Formation Teacher for his faith community of Holy Rosary Parish.

Matt is also a member of the Statewide LEDR Executive Peer Support Team, and the North East Wisconsin Emergency Debrief Team. In his role as Sheriff Matt has also worked with his Team of law enforcement professionals to implement a Peer-to-Peer Support program at the Kewaunee County Sheriff's Department.